PROJECT (Marks: 25)

UG__SEM3 _SEC3_ELT

Attempt any one of the following:

1. Select an ESL text that you have previously used. Examine its contents to ascertain which approach/method, as specified in your curriculum, it appears to follow most closely. Substantiate your decision by providing relevant instances from the text. Discuss any blending of approaches/methods that you notice.
2. Imagine you teach an ESL oral skills class where certain students, possibly due to their personalities and / or cultural backgrounds, are highly talkative and tend to dominate class discussions while others who rarely participate in class conversations and, even when called on, respond by merely agreeing or stating that they have no opinion. Suggest some activities/ways to foster active participation and promote conversational skills among all students and help the introvert students feel more comfortable articulating their ideas.
3. Review the learner styles of at least five of your classmates. Describe which leaning styles apply to them. Then, reflecting on how you learnt the new terminology in your ELT course, describe which learning styles you preferred. Compare your preferred styles with of those of one of your classmates.
